Thanksgiving Holiday Closures

In observance of the Thanksgiving holiday, all city offices, libraries and facilities are closed on Thursday and Friday, Nov. 25 and 26. City libraries will also close on Saturday, Nov. 27.

In addition, there is no trash or recycling collection on Thanksgiving Day. Thursday's service moves to Friday, and Friday's service moves to Saturday. Please have your containers on the street by 5 a.m. on your collection day.

Cooking oil drop-off

Pouring used oil down your drain can lead to clogs and costly repair bills! This holiday season, remember to drop off your used cooking oil at the city of Buckeye's Public Works Department so it can be disposed of properly.

Schedule a drop-off with Buckeye Public Works by calling 623-349-6802.

Shop small by day...

Kick off the holiday season by supporting local businesses throughout the city on Small Business Saturday, Nov. 27 from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

In downtown Buckeye, the Buckeye Mainstreet Coalition will be at Benbow Park with "shop small shopping bags" filled with goodies, coupons and information on the many unique shops and restaurants in the area. Shopping bags are available on a first come, first serve basis.

Light up the night!

The holiday season officially begins with the city's Tree Lighting Ceremony at the 6th Street Plaza, across from City Hall on Saturday, Nov. 27 at 4 p.m.

Drop off your letters to Santa and decorate cookies before Mayor Orsborn flips the switch on the holiday tree at dusk.

New this year, all city buildings in downtown Buckeye will be decked in holiday lights and décor. Come take a photo on Santa's Sofa with the city's 33-foot tree in the background, or a selfie at one of the many photo pods throughout the downtown area.
